

30 January 2023

Strike day home study information for pupils in years 7, 8, 9 and 10

Dear parents and carers,

Further to the letter from the principal, Mrs. Gabbi, on Friday regarding National Education Union (NEU) teacher's strike action we are writing to you to share the home study information for pupils in years 7, 8, 9 and 10. The school will be closed to pupils in these year groups on Wednesday 1st February.

Please see below the activities that pupils in years 7, 8, 9 and 10 are required to complete at home on the day of the strike:

Year groups	Activities
7, 8 and 9	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> All My Maths online activities set by your child's maths teacher to be completed (printed copies of the activities will be available from the library on Tuesday 31st January. Please ask your child to collect this if you do not have online access at home) All years have a separate activity to access and complete which will be sent via your child's email address (printed copies of the activities will be available from the library on Tuesday 31st January. Please ask your child to collect this if you do not have online access at home) Catch up on any outstanding pieces of homework At least 30 minutes of reading DEAR book
10	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mathswatch activities set by your child's maths teacher to be completed (printed copies of the activities will be available from the Library on Tuesday 31st January. Please ask your child to collect this if you do not have online access at home) Complete the activities from the consolidation grid for English. You can be aspirational and complete more activities from the grid if you finish quickly. The work will be sent via your child's email address (printed copies of the activities will be available from the library on Tuesday 31st January. Please ask your child to collect this if you do not have online access at home) Catch up on any outstanding pieces of homework At least 30 minutes of reading DEAR book

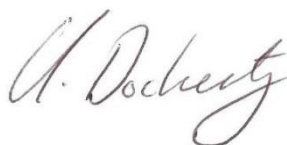

As mentioned above should your child require paper copies of any of the work listed please ensure that they collect this on Tuesday 31st January from the library. If you need any further support or guidance with the work your child is required to complete please feel free to contact us via email: office@montsaye.northants.sch.uk

We all hope that the issues over which the industrial action has arisen are resolved as soon as possible and we are able to continue with disruption free education for our pupils.

Yours faithfully

Mr G Baria
Senior Vice Principal

Mrs H Docherty
Assistant Vice Principal