ERA Heroes

- Congratulations to Niya T who last week was awarded the 50,000th ERA point of the year.
- Well done to those students who were stars of BBC Radio Northampton last week, talking about wellbeing
- Thank you to the Year 12 NCS students. The school received the NCS Gold Award for their participation.
- Well done to the Year 13 students who investigated a crime scene as part of their studies.
- To Jaiden C for Excellence - he was an absolute star in science, very mature and took a leadership role.
- To Kyle C in Year 11 for attending all revision sessions and completing all homework (even the really hard questions), for excellent attitude to learning and for striving to reach grade 8/9 in maths. Aspiration
- To Jack J and Caila A in Year 9. For working hard in maths, showing excellent attitude to learning and always being determined to finish their work in class and their homework. Resilience

Sports and PE News

Thank you to both Northamptonshire County Cricket Club and Northamptonshire Sport for the fantastic primary schools cricket festival which was held at Montsaye Academy last week. Well done to all of the children who took part.

Coming soon... Swimming Club.

We are pleased to announce that starting Wednesday 4th March from 3.00pm to 4.00pm, we have a race swimming coach coming to the academy to train our students. Weeks 1 to 5 will be development of speed skills and weeks 6 to 10 will be developing competition and race skills. Ask your child to contact Mr Wing to sign up.
