

30th September 2022

Dear parent/carers,

On Tuesday 4th October, Year 11 and Year 10 will be watching a performance as part of their PSHE and Performing Arts' curriculum. Students will be watching an original theatre performance of Human Nurture by award winning writer Ryan Calais Cameron. This is a performance set in the present day, which also addresses the Fundamental British Values of Mutual Respect, Individual Liberty and Tolerance which are also part of the National Curriculum

The key themes explored are friendship, race and class as well as the experience of care leavers. There is moderate to strong language and the head of drama Mr Shea has been giving the year group a trigger warning in their assemblies this week so they are aware of some of the content of the play in advance.

We believe that promoting the fundamental British Values of tolerance and respect is an essential part of every child's education and are pleased to have been able to invite the actors in to school next week.

We look forward to delivering an informative, engaging experience for the Year 11 and Year 10 students.

If you have any queries about any aspects of the performance, please do not hesitate in contacting me at school.

Yours sincerely,

Emma Lopes, Tim Shea, Hannah Pickering and Jon Roberts
