

DANCE A-LEVEL

For more information please see Miss Malins

For whom is this course suitable?

If you are interested in performing and studying the theory of Dance and are keen to develop and improve Dance technique and choreography, then you will enjoy this course.

Students studying A Level Dance will have achieved at least a grade 5 in GCSE Dance, or will have taken part in dance-related activities outside school, and will be prepared to take part in an audition process.

What will I learn on this course?

In A-Level Dance you will study the following two components:

1. Performance and Choreography (50% of A-level)

This is the practical element of A-level Dance. You will be assessed performing a solo that is linked to a specified practitioner, performance in a quartet and a group choreography.

2. Critical Engagement (50% of A-level)

This is the written element of A-level Dance. You will be assessed on your knowledge, understanding and critical appreciation of two set works. You will be assessed by completing a written paper.

What could I do at the end of my course?

After studying A-Level Dance you will be well placed for Dance courses at University or Dance colleges. A-Level Dance can be used to apply for a range of courses at University, including; Dance studies, Musical Theatre Performance, Performing arts, Dance Science or Dance Education.

Alongside Dance qualifications, this course supports many transferable skills such as team working, communication and problem solving which can support all university and job applications.
