A level History Summer work – Russia and China: who's, who?

Using the tables above research the key figures and make notes on the political, economic and social contributions. Also write a summary on why this person is important to the topic.

Extension – you could create files on each person – add a picture, even make a mock Facebook profile to make it memorable.

Remember please don't use Wikipedia, use educational websites/books, you could also see if YouTube has any documentaries.
