

Plan 2

English Literature

Week	Classwork	Homework	Resources
1) 20 th February	In these lessons, you will be focusing on the Literature texts that you have studied least recently, starting with A Christmas Carol. Lesson One: Review my prior learning of A Christmas Carol by looking at context and themes? Identify my revision priorities through this reflection. Lesson Two: Look at analysis of an extract, in order to prepare for the style of the exam questions. Lesson Three: Essay Challenge - Starting with this extract, how does Dickens	Complete a provided plan for your essay writing challenge (Friday p1) so that you are ready to write. Lessons will be used to give guidance, but this task will rely on the strength of your revision. Task: Starting with this extract, how does Dickens present Scrooge's attitude to charity? In preparation for this task complete: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Flashcards of the key elements for this question, such as key quotes, context or analysis Homework reminder due Monday 27th: Completed revision flashcards for all literature texts	Literature English Revision Guide ppt/PDF for hints, tips and supporting material YouTube – there are a range of video resources that could support you, such as Mr Bruff's analysis videos. Remember, just watching or reading material is not revision – do something with it to absorb the information, such as spaced retrieval (explored in the Retrieval practice ppt)

	present Scrooge's attitude to charity? Lesson Four: Effective planning strategies for Literature exam responses. What are the success criteria for a grade 4-6 response?		Revision Guide for Language
2) 27th February	This week, your lessons will all be essential skills for extended writing, particularly those around WHW paragraphs and including key context. We will look at and practice this across the full range of Literature texts, with one lesson each dedicated to An Inspector Calls, Macbeth and Anthology Poetry. Your essay challenge will be a series of mini challenges on each of these areas where you will practice speed planning responses to exam questions. Lesson One: How do I construct What, How, Why	Bring your completed bank of quotation flashcards on Monday. You need to select 2-3 quotations per the themes specified below. For each quote you need to write the method and the impact of method. An example is included below: An Inspector Calls – Responsibility, Generations, Socialism, Capitalism, Social Class and Gender A Christmas Carol – Redemption, Family, Poverty, Social Class, Religion, Christmas and Charity Macbeth – Power, Gender, Appearance vs. reality, Religion, Loyalty and betrayal and supernatural Power and Conflict – Power, conflict, nature, war, identity, loss and memory paragraphs effectively?

How do add multiple interpretations?

Lesson Two: Quotation review and revision. Create flashcards for each of the Literature texts that can be continued at home as part of revision.

Lesson Three: Mini-essay challenges: plan responses for questions on the three Literature area identified for this week.

Lesson Four: Language Paper One – Planning and practicing a response to Q5, worth 40 marks in your exam.

Notes for trial exams: In your next set of mock Literature papers, you will be answering questions on all of the texts studied:

Paper One

- A Christmas Carol (30)
- Macbeth (34)

Paper Two

- An Inspector Calls (34)
- Power and Conflict Poetry (30)
- Unseen Poetry (32)

In your Language exams, you will have to answer 5 questions on both papers, both with Section A and B weighted at 40 marks (50% of the paper; 25% of your overall grade):

Paper One

- State four things (4)
- Language (8)
- Structure (8)
- Evaluate (20)
- Creative Writing (40)

Paper Two

- Pick four true statements (4)
- Summary (8)
- Language (12)
- Comparison (16)
- Transactional Writing (40)