Examples from the Literature Revision Guide

Assessment Objectives: AO1 (12 marks)

- For AO1 you should be writing about how the themes and big ideas of the text relate to the storyline and the development of characters. This is your WHAT statements.
- AO1 is also about answering and focusing on the task – i.e. have you answered the question?
- Finally and most importantly AO1 is about your knowledge of the text. This is quotations and specific references to the text.
- For AO1 you are encouraged to use embedded quote where you can., though if you can't remember the exact quote you can make as close a reference to the text as you can.

AO1	Read, understand and respond to texts. Students should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• maintain a critical style and develop an informed personal response</li> <li>• use textual references, including quotations, to support and illustrate interpretations.</li> </ul>
------------	---

Assessment Objectives: AO2 (12 marks)

- For AO2 you should be focusing on the specific language being used. For this you should zoom in on specific words and phrases and make sure you show and explore meaning. A good guide to succeed here might be to think about the following:
- This is your HOW section of your essay – state methods and go into detail about the impact of that language.
- To reach higher bands you need to go into the form and structure.
- This is the part where building layers of analysis gets you moving up the bands.

AO2	Analyse the language, form and structure used by a writer to create meanings and effects, using relevant subject terminology where appropriate.
------------	---

Assessment Objectives: AO3 (6 marks)

- For AO3 this is all about understanding context; this is essentially understanding the world in which the writers were writing and the wider societal impact it had.
- This is your WHY section of your essay.
- Whilst it is worth less marks than the other AOs, you can use AO3 to inform your AO1 and AO2 – this is where higher bands tend to be reached.
- Writers don't just write to make people happy: they also write to quell a burning desire for real social change. Dickens didn't write 'A Christmas Carol' just for fun, he wrote it from a burning desire to make his world see how the obsessive pursuit of wealth was damaging society by punishing the poor - the same reason J.B. Priestley wrote 'An Inspector Calls' really. Shakespeare wrote Macbeth to impress King James. It is delving into the 'why' behind the texts we study.

AO3	Show understanding of the relationships between texts and the contexts in which they were written.
------------	--

Assessment Objectives: AO4 (4 marks)

Assessment of AO4
AO4 will be assessed on Section A and Section B (question 07.1 only). The performance descriptors are provided below.

Performance descriptor	Marks awarded
High performance: In the context of the level of demand of the question, learners spell and punctuate with consistent accuracy, and consistently use vocabulary and sentence structures to achieve effective control of meaning.	4 marks
Intermediate performance: In the context of the level of demand of the question, learners spell and punctuate with considerable accuracy, and use a considerable range of vocabulary and sentence structures to achieve general control of meaning.	2-3 marks
Threshold performance: In the context of the level of demand of the question, learners spell and punctuate with reasonable accuracy, and use a reasonable range of vocabulary and sentence structures, any errors do not hinder meaning in the response.	1 mark

Where a candidate writes nothing or fails to meet threshold performance they should receive 0 marks.

AO4	Use a range of vocabulary and sentence structures for clarity, purpose and effect, with accurate spelling and punctuation.

- AO4 is in 'Macbeth' and 'An Inspector Calls'. An extra four marks are offered for spelling, punctuation, grammar and the use of advanced vocabulary.
- You are encouraged to use correct SPAG and aspire for higher vocabulary always. But it is extra important to proof read your 'An Inspector Calls' essay for this reason.
- 'Fancy words' exist for a reason, and using them wisely will always help your grade. Pay attention to the vocab banks for each component in this revision guide.
