

Revision Plan 2 – Two weeks before mocks

English Literature 11y/En1

Week	Classwork	Homework	Resources
20th February	In these lessons, you will be focusing on the Literature texts that you have studied least recently, starting with A Christmas Carol. Lesson One: Review my prior learning of A Christmas Carol by looking at context and themes? Identify my revision priorities through this reflection. Lesson Two: Look at analysis of an extract, in order to prepare for the style of the exam questions. Lesson Three: Essay Challenge - Starting with this extract, how does Dickens	Complete your plan for your essay writing challenge (Wednesday P5) so that you are ready to write. Lessons will be used to give guidance, but this task will rely on the strength of your revision. Task: Starting with this extract, how does Dickens present Scrooge's attitude to charity? Depending on your level of need, either complete: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• A full essay plan, with key quotes incorporated into a clear 3 paragraph (minimum) response</li><li>• A timed essay plan, taking no more than 10 minutes to complete the outlines of the plan</li><li>• Flashcards of the key elements for this question, such as key quotes, context or analysis</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Literature English Revision Guide ppt/PDF</li></ul> Use this for hints, tips and supporting material <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• YouTube – there are a range of video resources that could support you, such as Mr Bruff's analysis videos.</li><li>• Remember, just watching or reading material</li></ul>

	present Scrooge's attitude to charity? Lesson Four: Effective planning strategies for Literature exam responses. What are the success criteria for a grade 7-9 response?		is not revision – do something with it to absorb the information, such as spaced retrieval (explored in the Retrieval practice ppt)
2) 27th February	This week, your lessons will all be essential skills for extended writing, particularly those around WHW paragraphs and including key context. We will look at and practice this across the full range of Literature texts, with one lesson each dedicated to An Inspector Calls, Macbeth and Anthology Poetry. Your essay challenge will be a series of mini challenges on each of these areas where you will practice speed planning responses to exam questions. Lesson One: How do I construct What, How, Why	Create a bank of quotation flashcards. You need to select 2-3 quotations per the themes specified below. For each quote you need to write the method and the impact of method. An example is included below: An Inspector Calls – Responsibility, Generations, Socialism, Capitalism, Social Class and Gender A Christmas Carol – Redemption, Family, Poverty, Social Class, Religion, Christmas and Charity Macbeth – Power, Gender, Appearance vs. reality, Religion, Loyalty and betrayal and supernatural Power and Conflict – Power, conflict, nature, war, identity, loss and memory	• Revision Guide for Language paragraphs effectively?

How do add multiple interpretations?

Lesson Two: Quotation review and revision. Create flashcards for each of the Literature texts that can be continued at home as part of revision.

Lesson Three: Mini-essay challenges: plan responses for questions on the three Literature area identified for this week.

Lesson Four: Language Paper One – Planning and practicing a response to Q5, worth 40 marks in your exam.

Notes for trial exams: In your next set of mock Literature papers, you will be answering questions on all of the texts studied:
