

Summer Tasks: Sociology 2019

Sociology is created out of the ideas and research of key individuals or a group of people working together. Sociology came into being at the beginning of the twentieth century based on the ideas of three people

- Emile Durkheim
- Max Weber
- George Herbert Mead

Also important in the development of the subject is Karl Marx. He was not a sociologist but his ideas have been a huge influence on the subject.

Task.

Research the life and work of the four individuals mentioned above.

Say a little about their background and lives.

What were their key ideas?

How have they influenced the development of sociology?

Outcome.

Approximately one side of A4 notes for each person

Be prepared to talk to your group about any one of the four key individuals you have researched.
