AQA POWER & CONFLICT

Term 2: Poetry

Homework 1	Research	Due date:	Completed?
Homework 2	Write	Due date:	Completed?
Homework 3	Review	Due date:	Completed?

Homework 1 - Research

Complete your own independent research to supplement the information you gather in class on the question written below. You will be answering this for Homework 2, so the more research you complete, the easier the task will be for you to complete.

Question: Explore the way that power is presented in Remains and one other poem from the anthology.

Record your research in whatever way is most appropriate. Some suggested methods include:

- Topic mind maps
- Revision grids
- Flashcards

Homework 2 - Write: Exam Question

Using your knowledge and research from Homework Task 1, complete a timed response to the following question:

Explore the way that power is presented in Remains and one other poem from the anthology. (30 marks)

1. Write in a formal essay style and start with a thesis statement
2. Use WHW paragraphs to structure your response
3. Remember to use the extract to begin with, then move into the poem as a whole
4. Embed quotations and context to gain the most marks
5. Use comparative language to link to your other poem

Homework 3 - Review

Using feedback you have been given by your teacher, take your time to reflect on your response to the last homework task. Complete the following resilience tasks to consolidate your learning and improve your response:

- 1) Review your successes - what have you done well?
- 2) Review your areas for improvement - is there something missing from your work?
- 3) Review your areas for improvement - is there an area that you need to develop further?
- 4) Which of the following is your greatest area of development need: using quotes, using the extract, identifying methods, using information from the wider novella, commenting on impact of method, commenting on writer's intentions?
- 5) Choose a section of your work where this area for development is most evident and rewrite this section in green pen.
